BOTR: Flip Flops – New Smyrna Beach

A bright sunny morning found 12 of us in 5 Corvettes meeting at Sunshine Park Mall in South Daytona. How do you fit 12 folks in 5 Corvette – well you don't. Jim and Ginny's son, Steelly, had his Avalanche and the Luther's were in Alice's Impala. I think she is still getting over her multi-hour ride in John's '57 to Key West. Also in the group were the Compton's, Doyle's, Konopsky's, and Jerry Macklefresh.

Jim led the group via Ridgewood Avenue to the NSB south causeway bridge and then to the restaurant. We were shown to a big round table that just happened to fit all of us. Good planning by the restaurant host. We were early enough that we had the entire section to ourselves. The service was prompt and efficient and the food was great. The deserts were good and also colorful – see photos in the Photo Gallery.
